TO THE JUDGE OF THE SIXTH DISTRICT COURT OF LOUISIANA
HOLDING SESSIONS IN AND FOR OUACHITA PARISH, LOUISIANA.

Mrs. Hattie (Bobo) Phillips, a resident of Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, represents to the Court:

I

That she was married to P. H. Phillips, of the same residence, in the State of Mississippi, in the year 1899, and in 1915 they moved to the City of Monroe, Parish of Ouachita, State of Louisiana, and have ever since that date resided in said City, Parish and State, which is now their domicile.

II

That there was born to them of their marriage six children: Laurence, Clarence, Leon, Florence, Annie Myrtle and Mae Phillips. All of said children are minors with the exception of Laurence, who is twenty-two years of age, and said children reside in the City of Monroe, Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, and are living with the defendant in this suit.

III

She avers that for the past four years her said husband has been cruel to her and his conduct to her has rendered their living together impossible. She avers that on frequent occasions he has beat her with his fists, and during the month of March, 1921 he struck her with such violence, while he was in a fit of anger, that he broke two of her ribs, and she had to have a physician to dress her injuries and was confined to her bed from said injuries several weeks; and that in October, 1921, he struck her with such violence on the head over the left eye that her head bled profusely and an ugly wound, which had to be dressed by her neighbors and relatives, was inflicted; That in December, 1921, he met her on the street at night and grabbed her and choked her. She avers that on other and frequent occasions he has been violent and abusive of her; that after he struck her as aforesaid he would not remain to assist in dressing her wounds, but left the house, although she was suffering greatly; that he has frequently threatened to kill her, and he frequently visits her sister's house, where petitioner is now living, and makes violent threats, and attempts to break into the house where she is, and that she is in bodily fear of him at all times.

IV

She avers that for the past four months he has contributed nothing whatever to her support, and she is now compelled to live with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Phillips, who is boarding and supporting your petitioner.

V

She avers that the above set forth acts of cruel treatment on the part of her husband toward her, and his outrages toward her, and his attempts and threats upon her life and to do her bodily harm, are of such a nature as to render their living together any longer insupportable.

VI

She avers that while she is not able to support her minor children, and to educate them that she should be given the care and the custody of them in order that the two boys, Clarance and Leon, might help her make a support for herself and of her three minor daughters; and that her said husband should be decreed by the Court to pay alimony, or at least thirty dollars per month for the support of the above minor girls.

Therefore, petitioner prays that her said husband have service of this petition and be cited to answer hereto, and upon a trial of this cause that she be given judgment against her said husband of separation from bed and board, and that she be given further judgment granting her the care and the custody of the above named minors; and that she be given further judgment for thrity dollars ($30.00), per month against her said husband for alimony for the support and maintenance of her said minor children; andtthat upon expiration of twelve months from the decree of separation from bed and board, she be granted an absolute divorce from her said husband. She prays for all other necessary orders, for cost and general relief.

Petitioner further shows that she has always been a kind and dutiful wife, but that regardless of his marriage vows, he has, since their marriage, been guilty of adultery, committed at various times with a woman named Minnie Clark.

-3-

Petitioner avers that, because of the shameful conduct of her said husband and the dishonor which he has brought upon Her good name, she, desires to obtain a divorce from him and to secure the custody of her youngest child Fay, age two years.

-4-

Petitioner further shows that their two oldest children, namely, Geraldine and Lawrence Jr., are now established in a home in Jennings, La. through the efforts of the defendant Lawrence Phillips and it is your petitioner's wish that said children remain in the permanent custody of the said defendant.

-5-

Petitioner further shows that there is no property existing under the community of acquets and gains.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that defendant be duly cited to appear and answer this petition, that after due proceedings had, there be judgment in favor of plantiff and against defendant, decreeing a divorce " a vinculo matrimonii " between them and dissolving forever the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them, and granting to petitioner the permanent care and custody of the said child Fay Phillips.

Petitioner further prays that this Honorable Court grant unto the defendant the permanent care and custody of the two children, namely, Geraldine and Bawrence Phillips Jr., issue of their marriage.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

HOLDING SESSIONS IN AND FOR THE PARISH OF OUACHITA

STATE OF LOUISIANA

The petition of Mrs. Marie R. Phillips (now Mrs. Marie R. Gregory), a resident of the Parish of Ouachita, State of Louisiana, with respect represents:

That under date of October 13, 1926, this Honorable Court rendered a final decree in above styled and numbered cause, granting unto your petitioner a final decree of divorce "a vinculo matrimoni" from her then husband, Lawrence Phillips, in which said judgment of divorce the said Lawrence Phillips was granted the permanent care and custody of their minor child, Lawrence Phillips, Jr.

2.

Petitioner further shows that within a few days after the rendition of said judgment of divorce, the said Lawrence Phillips returned to your petitioner the said minor child, Lawrence Phillips, Jr., and that your petitioner has has said minor in her charge since that time.

3.

Petitioner further shows that her former husband, Lawrence Phillips, left the State of Louisiana many years ago; that he has never, since the granting of said divorce, contributed anything to the support of the minor, Lawrence Phillips, Jr., and has made no effort to see him or to inquire about his welfare, and that he has been entirely dependent upon your petitioner for support since he was abandoned by his father during the year 1926.

Your petitioner now shows that she desires to be awarded the permanent care and custody of her minor child, Lawrence Phillips, Jr. and that the said Lawrence Phillips, Sr. be divested of said care and custody of the minor.

5.

Your petitioner shows that the said Lawrence Phillips is now in the State of Mississippi, and is, therefore, an absentee, and it is necessary that an attorney at law be appointed to represent him in these proceedings.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that after due proceedings had, that there be judgment herein in favor of petitioner and against the defendant, Lawrence Phillips, granting unto petitioner the permanent care and custody of the minor, Lawrence Phillips, Jr.

Further prays that an attorney at law be appointed to represent the said absentee defendant, Lawrence Phillips, and with whom these proceedings may be carried on contradictorially.

Further prays that during the pendency of this suit that petitioner be granted the custody and control of the minor, Lawrence Phillips, Jr., until the further orders of this Honorable Court.

Further prays for all orders and decrees proper or necessary in this suit, for all costs of this proceeding, and for general and equitable relief.
